Meet the Team

Brian has had a career in competitive golf for the last 20 years at the junior, amateur and professional level. Born and raised in Northbrook, IL, he claimed the Individual Class 3A State Title in 2013 playing for Glenbrook North along with qualifying for the U.S Junior Amateur Championship in 2013.

He went on to compete at the Division 1 level at Miami University graduating from the Farmer School of Business (B.S) with a degree in Finance. During his time at Miami he led the team as captain in 2017-2019, winning 1 individual collegiate event, 3x All MAC Second Team honors, and also qualifying with medalist honors for 3 U.S Amateur Championships in 2016, 2017, and 2018.

In his 4 year professional career, Brian earned status on the PGA Latinoamerica Tour and placed 5th at the Estrella Del Mar Open earning world ranking points and placing him in the WGR as a world ranked professional golfer.

Highlights

Education/Skills

- Glenbrook North High School Attendance/Graduation
- Miami University Graduation (B.S) in Finance
- Personal Experience of College Recruiting Process
- Miami University Team Captain in 2017, 2018 & 2019
- Direct Relationship with Division 1 Head Coaches
- Connections with Reputable Golf Organization's Sponsorship Programs
- Relationships with Professional Golfers within the PGA, KFT, PGA Americas
- Full Season on PGA LatinoAmerica in 2020-2021

During his formative years at Glenbrook North High School, Brian adeptly honed time management skills, balancing rigorous academics with a demanding golf schedule. His academic prowess, exemplified by a 34 ACT score, attracted recruitment from esteemed universities such as the University of Iowa, University of Pennsylvania, Columbia University and Yale. Navigating the recruitment process provided Brian valuable insights into the factors that leave a positive impression and the nuances coaches value in players.

Choosing Miami University as his academic and golfing home, Brian, a Finance major, cultivated additional skills in professional communication, including the crafting of cover letters, business emails, and resumes. Serving as team captain from 2017 to 2019, he showcased effective leadership both in the classroom and on the golf course, fostering communication skills beneficial from both player and coach perspectives.

Transitioning to the professional realm, Brian established meaningful connections with fellow golf professionals across various levels and partnered with renowned brands such as Titleist, Taylormade, FootJoy, Bettinardi and Swag Putters. His experience delving into the intricacies of running a personal business/brand equipped him with essential skills in managing travel itineraries, expenses encompassing housing, travel, entry fees and living costs. These skills proved pivotal in his adept management of events on both national and international scales.
